

One day International Workshop on
Aquatic Biodiversity studies by eDNA Metabarcoding
12 MARCH | 9.00 am | PGIS Conference Hall

Registration fee: Rs.1000

A certificate of participation will be issued

Refreshments will be provided

Schedule

- DNA metabarcoding for Biodiversity Observation: basic technology
- Case study of Fish biodiversity study in Iriomote Island, A World heritage site in Japan.
- Practical method and challenges in eDNA metabarcoding work from - a beginner's perspective
- A free and easy way of NGS data analyses using Kaggle
- Hands on practice using Kaggle for data analyses:

Please bring your laptops for this session

Resource Persons

from Tropical Biosphere Research Center, University of the Ryukyus, Japan

Prof. Tadashi Kajita

Marizka Juliano

Bernadeth Grace

Iori Mizukami

Coordinators

Prof Shalika Kumburegama
0812394480

Dr Jayampathi Herath
0812058311

REGISTRATION
SCAN ME

1st RESCON pre conference workshop

Postgraduate Institute of Science

University of Peradeniya

Sri Lanka

